

Hackfalls Arbor Camp

8-9 November 2014

Hackfalls Arboretum?

Located in Tiniroto, near Gisborne, Hackfalls Arboretum is home to over 3,000 species and varieties of oaks, alders, cherries, magnolias, maples and more. The collection of evergreen and semi-evergreen Mexican oak species is considered the largest private collection of oaks in the world.

If you have not yet been to the Hackfalls Arbor Camp then you need to experience it this year. The Camp offers the rare opportunity to share your passion and knowledge with colleges and friends, while you help sustain this wonderful heritage asset. As every year, we have the newest climbing and rigging equipment available on trial.

Come and join the team!

Friday: Arrival and set up

Saturday: Sustaining one of New Zealand's most wonderful heritage assets and sharing ideas with colleagues from around the nation (world).

Sunday: More fun and packing up to go home

Hackalls Arboretum

Basic camping facilities are provided as well as a social BBQ on Saturday night. The rest of the weekend is a potluck/self-catering kind of event.

Hackfalls Arboretum is a sheep and cattle station, so please don't bring your dog.

What to bring:

- Family and Friends
- Food and beverages for the weekend
 - Tents and sleeping bags
 - Climbing gear and chainsaws

How to get there:

Hackfalls Arboretum
187 Berry Road
Tiniroto

If you are flying to Gisborne, we can help with transport to the Arbor Camp on Friday.
